

Fool's Errand Part II by Lady Adara

When The other drows had gone on their way, The trader returned to Zhai and pulled her from the cell where he had tossed her to wait till the others had left. He proceeded to take his dirty robes off and told Zhai that her duty now was to please him or she would dishonour her Mistress. Before Zhai could say anything on the subject, the trader ordered her to remove her clothes and dance for him so he could look at her slim and beautiful body.

Zhai wasn't at all keen to serve this dirty and smelly rat faced trader who sat down on his bed and started stroking his cock. The Acolyte started to dance because he was right in what he said. She had to please him as her Mistress had commanded her to do. As she started to dance for him, the trader was enthralled by what he saw in front of him. The young petite drow female, almost fully naked now was removing her thigh high grey stockings from her legs very slowly.

He was really thrilled and pleased to see how she danced for him, and she did it so well. His cock had gotten really hard fast, and rat faced trader wanted to move forward with her. He licked his dirty lips and told his sex slave to make him cum with her lovely mouth. Zhai smiled a little bit for him, while hoping that it would please him and trader would be easy on her. The naked drow acolyte did what he told her to do, going on her knees in front of the vile smelling trader. He smelled like vomit and sweat and she thought that he must not have washed in months, but she had to keep her mind on the job and forget the rest.

She was hoping that he would be easily made to cum and he would lose interest in her. She had noticed that trader was well hung and she wasn't sure how she could take this hard cock inside her. Still, her own interests were growing and as she was stroking his big cock, she felt how her body was aroused by it. Zhai licked his hard cock slowly and took it into her mouth. The trader groaned as she sucked him for she really did it well as her mouth felt so hot and moist around his meaty prick. Her slim hands stroked the base of his cock as she really knew how to please a man. She tried to do her job as slow as she could, so he would enjoy it more and delay cumming till later on but the trader wanted to cum in her mouth and to watch as the young sexy naked drow female used her mouth and hands to make him cum. This made him shoot streams of his seed into her mouth. Zhai had a mouthful of disgusting, foul tasting and slimy seed in her mouth and trader ordered her to swallow it. She obeyed quietly, but noticed that trader still stayed hard.

She was already panting slightly and the acolytes own body wanted to have his hard member deep inside her. She couldn't deny it any longer and she obeyed willingly when the trader told to get up onto his lap. The young drow almost jumped onto his lap as she let his hard cock find it's way into her wet and waiting pussy. Zhai moaned as she felt how his hard member slid into her and stretched her pussy.

He groaned as he enjoyed feeling her tightness around his cock. Her body trembled gently as she allowed his cock to slide deeper and deeper into her waiting pussy. The hands of the trader were all over her body and she enjoyed the feeling.

The Acolyte felt how his hard member was deep in her body and how it made her body tremble from the heat. She panted more strongly now while riding on the traders cock and she wanted to have it into her faster and harder. He allowed her to do what she wanted and lay down, while Zhai rode on his cock at a fierce pace. She moaned and groaned, as her body trembled from the pleasures of the orgasms that he was giving her. The inner parts of her body vibrated strongly and it made him pant heavily also. Zhai's young body was glistening with her own sweat and she rode faster on the traders lap. Her perky tits moved along with her fast paced rhythm. He groaned loudly and felt how this girl's hot body felt tighter and tighter when she had those strong vibrations as she gave way to her orgasms squeezing on his cock.

He was sure that it had been a good deal for him to give up the map and have this acolyte for his use for the whole night. This Drow female seemed to be real sex maniac, but he didn't mind that at all, in fact it was something he had not expected and was overjoyed by the fact. He enjoyed it immensely and she certainly kept her part of the deal. Still he wanted more and he told her to get up and to go on her hands and knees on the bed. She obeyed willingly and took the position in front of him. Zhai offered her body willingly to be fucked by the trader and her body was in need of the pleasure that his long hard cock gave to her.

She didn't need to wait for long as he wanted to use her young strong body now that he had a chance to do it. He just rammed his long hard cock into her wet pussy and she cried out loud as trader was really rough on her this time. Her body trembled from the pleasure as the loudly groaning trader rammed his hard member harder than ever into her. Zhai cried out loudly as every thrust felt like a huge spear that was trying to penetrate her whole body. He kept her in place with a firm grip of her hips and kept fucking her with fast and fierce thrusts. The young drow acolyte moaned loudly and cried out loudly from the pleasure she was receiving as her perky firm tits swung along with the fast paced rhythm. The traders hands kept her in that position and Zhai let him use her tight cunt as he wanted. She wanted him to fuck her, use her and even to shoot his seeds into her.

He used her body for a long time and before he finally unloaded his hot seed into Zhai's waiting womb, she had had several more orgasms ,and when he unloaded his hot foul seed into her, she got another long and lasting strong orgasm from that dirty feeling she had enjoyed so much. She had given into her feelings and she had to purify herself completely later on, but not yet. The trader had cum in her, but he wasn't finished with her yet as he jumped up from the bed.

He told Zhai, that he would continue later on after he had taken some herbs to regain the hardness of his manhood. The trader promised that his cock would be even harder after he had used the herbs, so she should be ready for him when he returns, and then he went into his shop. Zhai was left to lay on the bed and wait for him to return. Her night had just begun and the trader was going to take full payment from her..
